Texas Hill Country

The 2018 competition had 6,960 entries from 35 states across the country.

67 skilled judges from a variety of fields traveled to Sonoma County to determine the best wines in the USA. Utilizing an extensive process that divides the varietals into several categories and subcategories, the event gave the panels the chance to rate entries as Bronze, Silver, Gold or "Double Gold" (equivalent to a unanimous rating by all panel members).
